

Bethel Baptist Church

BYLAWS

PREAMBLE

There are three documents that will be used to provide guidance, organization and additional details beyond the Constitution of how Bethel Baptist Church will carry out our Core Values, and our Mission. Each of these documents will be available to all Covenant Members. The approval of each of these documents and changes to them are described below.

Bylaws – this document defines the first level of detail. The Bylaws define:

- A. The qualifications, roles, responsibilities, and structure of the Bethel Leadership Team and the membership of the team.
- B. The process for selecting and approving the Pastor, the leader of the Ministry Teams, and Prayer and Bible Study Group Coordinator, and the Deacons.

Bylaws and changes to them require approval of a simple majority (greater than 50%) of the covenant members present in a church conference as defined in Section 3.0 Church Conferences of the Bylaws on church conferences.

Personnel Policy Manual – this document defines:

- A. The details of the policies associated with the pastor not defined in the bylaws
- B. the qualifications of paid staff positions
- C. the job descriptions
- D. the policies on vacation, holidays, and sick leave
- E. The polices on hiring, resignations, and terminations of paid staff individuals

The Personnel Policy Manual and changes to it require approval of a simple majority (greater than 50%) of the covenant members present in a church conference as defined in Section 3.0 Church Conferences of the Bylaws on church conferences.

Ministry Manual – this document describes the details about church policies, procedures and organization charts depicting lines of responsibility in the administration of the church and how the various Ministry Teams as well as Prayer and Bible Study Groups function. This document defines:

- A. The level of detail of this manual will be determined by the Bethel Leadership Team.
- B. It should have sufficient detail to ensure the teams understand their roles and responsibilities.
- C. It should document the annual plan of ministries, activities, and events
- D. It should establish the measures, goals, and the process to track and report progress
- E. It should define the measures that will be regularly evaluated to ensure goals are being met.

The Pastor has the main responsibility to ensure the Ministry Manual is maintained. The Ministry Manual and changes to it require the approval of a minimum of 2/3rd 's vote of the Bethel Leadership Team Leaders.

1.0 Organization

1 The following organization chart is a basic structure of the church. All positions of leadership will be Covenant
